NEW CHILDREN'S BOOK!

COME ONE, COME ALL TO THE CROOKED LITTLE CABIN

AN IDYLLIC CELEBRATION OF SUMMER OUTSIDE—FOR KIDS FROM ALL BACKGROUNDS

A dynamic and diverse gaggle of kids—friends and extended family—arrive for the summer at the crooked little cabin within the tall pine woods by the lake, at the foot of the mountains. And with that begins a lush season of joyful play, sun-soaked naps, adventure, art, and storytelling. With equal parts nostalgia and ambition, this story evokes the idyllic summer days that readers of all ages long for. Author Samara Cole Doyon (Magnificent Homespun Brown) wrote this as a siren song for kids of all backgrounds, welcoming them to the magic of the wilderness.

Riley Samels grew up in Cleveland, Ohio. He attended Kent State University and received a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Visual Communications and Design. He's traveled cross country working for various studios as an Illustrator in both the children's book and greeting card industries. Riley's work is fueled by his friends and family he has found in the LGBTQIA+ community, as well as his wide array of other passions including the wildlife around him, and good food. In his free time, you'll probably find him tending to his indoor jungle or cooking up something in the kitchen.
